

August 25, 2011

Red Lobster remodeling inland restaurants

Red Lobster's restaurant in Victorville has been remodeled, the seafood chain announced.

The New England-inspired redesign includes an exterior stone tower, ship lanterns and Adirondack chair. New interior decorations include new booths, softer lighting and nautical adornments.

Red Lobster also recently completed a similar remodel of its restaurant at the Ontario Mills Mall.