

December 10, 2010

The 13th annual Foodie awards

We want to know your picks for 2010's best in local dining. The online ballot is at OrlandoSentinel.com/foodies.

The voting closes at 5 p.m. Dec. 31. Then on Jan. 28, we will honor your favorite restaurants in a special issue of Calendar. We've added two categories to the ballot: best hotel and best theme-park restaurants. With so many properties in Central Florida redefining hotel food, it was time to give these eateries their own category. In addition, we have watched theme-park cuisine evolve in intriguing ways. This year, nominate your favorite eateries inside the turnstiles.

New menus and new looks

Red Lobster will remodel its restaurants in a style reminiscent of the seaside village of Bar Harbor, Maine. In addition, Red Lobster has introduced new lunch and dinner items that range in price from $8.99-$18.50.

Stonewood Tavern & Grill is launching a new menu designed for guests who frequent the bar and are seeking lighter fare than the restaurant's regular menu. The new drinks and food items range from $9 to $10.50.